14. Secure Employment

14.1 Objective of this Clause

The objective of this clause is for the Employer to take all reasonable steps to provide its Employees with secure employment by maximising the number of permanent positions in the Employer's workforce, in particular by ensuring that Casual Employees have an opportunity to elect to become Full-Time or Part-Time Employees.

14.2 Casual Conversion

- (a) A Casual Employee engaged by the Employer on a regular and systematic basis for a sequence of periods of employment under this Award during a calendar period of six months shall thereafter have the right to elect to have his or her ongoing contract of employment converted to permanent full-time employment or part-time employment if the employment is to continue beyond the conversion process prescribed by this subclause.
- (b) The Employer of such a Casual Employee shall give the Employee notice in writing of the provisions of this subclause within four weeks of the Employee having attained such period of six months. However, the Employee retains his or her right of election under this subclause if the Employer fails to comply with this notice requirement.

Where the Employer refuses an election to convert, the reasons for doing so shall be fully stated and discussed with the Employee concerned, and a genuine attempt shall be made to reach agreement. Any dispute about a refusal of an election to convert an ongoing contract of employment shall be dealt with as far as practicable and with expedition through the disputes settlement procedure.
- (d) Any Casual Employee who does not, within four weeks of receiving written notice from the Employer, elect to convert his or her ongoing contract of employment to full-time employment or part-time employment will be deemed to have elected against any such conversion.
- (e) Once a Casual Employee has elected to become and been converted to a Full-Time Employee or a Part-Time Employee, the Employee may only revert to casual employment by written agreement with the Employer.
- (f) If a Casual Employee has elected to have his or her contract of employment converted to full-time or part-time employment in accordance with subclause 14.2(b), the Employer and Employee shall, in accordance with this subclause, and subject to subclause 14.2(b), discuss and agree upon:
 - (i) whether the Employee will convert to full-time or part-time employment; and
 - (ii) if it is agreed that the Employee will become a part-time Employee, the number of hours and the pattern of hours that will be worked either consistent with any other part-time employment provisions of this Award pursuant to a part time work agreement made under Chapter 2, Part 5 of the Industrial Relations Act 1996;

Provided that an Employee who has worked on a full-time basis throughout the period of casual employment has the right to elect to convert his or her contract of employment to full-time employment and an Employee who has worked on a part-time basis during the period of casual employment has the right to elect to convert his or her contract of employment to part-time employment, on the basis of the same number of hours and times of work as previously worked, unless other arrangements are agreed between the Employer and the Employee.

- (g) Following an agreement being reached pursuant to subclause 14.2(f), the Employee shall convert to full-time or part-time employment. If there is any dispute about the arrangements to apply to an Employee converting from casual employment to full-time or part-time employment, it shall be dealt with as far as practicable and with expedition through the disputes settlement procedure.

- (h) An Employee must not be engaged and re-engaged, dismissed or replaced in order to avoid any obligation under this subclause.

- (b) Considering Proposal to Contract Out Work

Where the Employer determines it intends to pursue a proposal to contract out work, subject to Government Approval, relevant unions and affected Employees will be notified. - (c) Decision to Contract Out Work

- (i) Once the Employer has finalised a proposal and has made a decision to contract out work, the Employer agrees to provide written information to relevant unions and affected Employees about the decision, and expected impact on Employees to contract out work. This does not require the disclosure of confidential or commercial in confidence information.

- (ii) Prior to implementation of a proposal to contract out work, the Employer will commence discussions with relevant unions and affected Employees about the contracting out process and arrangements for affected Employees.

- (d) Subject to reasonable notice and operational requirements, the Employer agrees to allow the unions reasonable opportunities during working hours to communicate with their members during the process outlined in subclause 14.8(b) above.

- (i) the Employer may elect to arrange and pay for the overnight accommodation direct to the accommodation provider and reimburse the Employee the appropriate meal allowance where the Employer does not provide a meal, however, in circumstances where a suitable meal is not available because of the Employee's work commitments or for some other sound reason, the meal allowance may be claimed and will be paid. Under any such arrangement, the Employer shall ensure that the accommodation so provided is reasonable and appropriate, having regard to the nature of the work assignment. This will enable Employees to manage family and career responsibilities or choose to reduce the number of hours worked as they approach retirement. The shift from full-time to part-time will be managed in accordance with RMS' Leave and Attendance Policy and applicable procedures. Requests to work part-time will not be unreasonably refused.

 - (i) abolish any position on the grounds of redundancy,
 - (ii) require an Employee to relinquish a position, or
 - (iii) terminate the Employee's services, should circumstances during the absence, so require.

A decision made to abolish a position while an Employee is on LWOP does not mean that the Employee will be offered a voluntary redundancy. RMS' policy and procedures on the management of displaced and excess staff will apply.

- (c) Up to 21 additional hours worked including those gained by working Public Holidays and outside the ordinary span of hours between 26 December and 31 January are to be paid out by the Employer at the ordinary rate of pay unless approval is granted by the Employer for TIL to be taken. Professional Engineers Level Descriptions

Engineer Level 1

The Professional Engineer (as defined) commencement level.

The engineer undertakes initial professional engineering tasks of limited scope and complexity, such as minor phases of broader assignments, in office, plant, field or laboratory work.

Classification Level definition

Under supervision from higher-level Professional Engineers as to method of approach and requirements, the Professional Engineer performs normal professional engineering work and exercises individual judgement and initiative in the application of engineering principles, techniques and methods.

In assisting more senior Professional Engineers by carrying out tasks requiring accuracy and adherence to prescribed methods of engineering analysis, design or computation, the engineer draws upon advanced techniques and methods learned during and after the undergraduate course.

Training, development and experience using a variety of standard engineering methods and procedures enable the Professional Engineer to develop increasing professional judgement and apply it progressively to more difficult tasks at Level 2.

Decisions are related to tasks performed, relying upon precedent or defined procedures for guidance. Recommendations are related to solution of problems in connection to the tasks performed.

Work is reviewed by higher-level Professional Engineers for validity, adequacy, methods and procedures. With professional development and experience, work receives less review, and the Professional Engineer progressively exercises more individual judgement until the level of competence at Level 2 is achieved.

The Professional Engineer may assign and check work of technical staff assigned to work on a common project.

Engineer Level 2

Classification Level definition

Following development through Level 1, a Professional Engineer who plans and conducts professional engineering work without detailed supervision, but with guidance on unusual features and who is usually engaged on more responsible engineering assignments requiring substantial professional experience.

Engineer Level 3

Classification Level definition

A Professional Engineer performing duties requiring the application of mature professional engineering knowledge. With scope for individual accomplishment and co-ordination of more difficult assignments, the Professional Engineer deals with problems for which it is necessary to modify established guides and devise new approaches.

The Professional Engineer may make some original contribution or apply new professional engineering approaches and techniques to the design or development of equipment or special aspects of products, facilities and buildings.

Recommendations may be reviewed for soundness of judgement but are usually regarded as technically accurate and feasible. The Professional Engineer makes responsible decisions on matters assigned, including the establishment of professional engineering standards and procedures, consults, recommends and advises in speciality engineering areas.

Work is carried out within broad guidelines requiring conformity with overall objectives, relative priorities and necessary co-operation with other units. Informed professional engineering guidance may be available.

The Professional Engineer outlines and assigns work, reviews it for technical accuracy and adequacy, and may plan, direct, co-ordinate and supervise the work of other professional and technical staff.

Engineer Level 4

Classification Level definition

A Professional Engineer required to perform professional engineering work involving considerable independence in approach, demanding a considerable degree of originality, ingenuity and judgement, and knowledge of more than one field of, or expertise (for example, acts as his/her organisation's technical reference authority) in a particular field of professional engineering.

The Professional Engineer:

- initiates or participates in short-range or long-range planning and makes independent decisions on engineering policies and procedures within an overall program;

- gives technical advice to management and operating departments;

- may take detailed technical responsibility for product development and provision of specialised engineering systems, facilities and functions;

- co-ordinates work programs; and

- directs or advises on use of equipment and material.

The Professional Engineer makes responsible decisions not usually subject to technical review, decides courses of action necessary to expedite the successful accomplishment of assigned projects, and may make recommendations involving large sums or long-range objectives.

Duties are assigned only in terms of broad objectives and are reviewed for policy, soundness of approach, accomplishment and general effectiveness.

The Professional Engineer supervises a group or groups including Professional Engineers and other staff, or exercises authority and technical control over a group of professional staff, in both instances engaged in complex engineering applications.

Engineer Level 5

Classification Level Definition

A Professional Engineer usually responsible for an engineering administrative function, directing several professional and other groups engaged in inter-related engineering responsibilities, or as an engineering consultant. Achieving recognition as an authority in an engineering field of major importance to the organisation.

The Professional Engineer independently conceives programs and problems to be investigated and participates in discussions determining basic operating policies, devising ways of reaching program objectives in the most economical manner and of meeting any unusual conditions affecting work progress.

The Professional Engineer makes responsible decisions on all matters, including the establishment of policies and expenditures of large sums of money and/or implementation of major programs, subject only to overall policy and financial controls.

The Professional Engineer receives administrative direction based on organisation policies and objectives. Work is reviewed to ensure conformity with policy and co-ordination with other functions.

The Professional Engineer reviews and evaluates technical work; selects, schedules, and co-ordinates to attain program objectives: and/or as administrator, makes decisions concerning selection, training, performance management and remuneration of staff.

Engineer Level 6

Classification Level Definition

A Professional Engineer usually responsible for a high-level engineering administrative and/or management function, directing and taking responsibility for several professional and other groups engaged in inter-related engineering responsibilities, or acts as the principal of a specialist engineering consulting organisation. Has achieved recognition as an authority in an engineering field of major importance to the organisation.

The Professional Engineer independently conceives programs and problems to be investigated and arrives at solutions. Initiates and participates in discussions determining basic operating policies, devising ways or reaching program objectives in the most economical manner and of meeting and overcoming any unusual conditions affecting work progress.

The Professional Engineer takes responsibility for decisions on all matters contained in area of management, including the establishment and promulgation of policies. Directs expenditures of large sums of money and/or implementation of major programs, subject only to overall organisational policy and financial controls.

The Professional Engineer reports only to high-level management and receives direction based on overall organisation policies and objectives. Reviews work assigned by high level management prior to delegation of tasks to others to ensure conformity with organisational policy and co-ordination with other organisational functions and outside agencies.

The Professional Engineer approves critical technical output from areas under management; selects, schedules, and co-ordinates to attain program objectives. As manager, selects upper level staff, and initiates training, performance management and decisions on remuneration of all staff under direction.

APPENDIX A

Calculation of Overnight Expenses

General

The rates of overnight expenses generally reflect the cost of meals and accommodation at a particular location. Consequently, different daily rates apply to each capital city in Australia and to selected high cost regional centres and a single rate applies to all other country locations.

Expenses are paid from the time of departure from headquarters or permanent residence up to the time the Employee arrives back at their headquarters or permanent residence.

When calculating expenses, the location of the overnight stay will dictate the daily allowance rate that will apply and the time of departure from each location will dictate the change from one rate to another.

Examples

1. Travel to a Single Destination

An Employee travels from their permanent residence at Grafton to attend a series of meetings in Sydney necessitating an overnight stay. The Employee departs Grafton at 6.00am and arrives back at their permanent residence at 6.00pm the following day.

Calculation of expenses

Employees are entitled to claim 1 day 12 hours at the Sydney expense rate.

2. Travel itinerary involving overnight stays at a number of locations

An Employee travels for work purposes from their headquarters in Sydney staying overnight at Newcastle, and Bathurst before returning to Sydney. In this example, the location of the overnight stay will dictate the daily allowance rate that will apply and the time of departure from each location will dictate the change from one rate to the next.

The itinerary is as follows:

Day 1 - depart Sydney at 7.00am. Meetings at Newcastle. Overnight Newcastle.

Day 2 - depart Newcastle at 8.00am. Travel to Bathurst for meetings. Overnight Bathurst.

Day 3 - depart Bathurst midday. Travel to Sydney arriving at permanent residence at 5.00pm.

Calculation of Expenses

1 day and 1 hour at the Newcastle expenses rate, i.e. from time of departure at Sydney on day 1 (7.00am) to the time of departure from Newcastle on day 2 (8.00am); and

1 day and 9 hours at the Bathurst expenses rate, i.e. from time of departure from Newcastle (8.00am) to time of departure from Bathurst (12.00pm) and travel back to Sydney (5.00pm).

SCHEDULE C - GRIEVANCE RESOLUTION PROCEDURE

Grievance Resolution Procedure

Section A - Introduction

1 Why is this procedure required and who is it for?

Roads and Maritime Services values the contribution of all staff to the achievement of our business objectives. The Grievance Resolution Procedure provides guidance to all managers and staff on how to raise and address work-related concerns and grievances promptly, impartially and confidentially. This procedure and process may be used by:

- staff to address work-related concerns and grievances with other staff, and
- managers to resolve work-related concerns and grievances between staff.
- The Grievance Resolution Procedure does not cover matters relating to:
 - work health and safety or compensation [refer - Work Health and Safety Manual]
 - poor performance issues [refer - Managing Unsatisfactory Performance and Conduct Procedure]
 - fraud, corruption, maladministration or serious or substantial waste of resources [refer - Corrupt Conduct and Maladministration Prevention Policy and PN 017]
 - misconduct and disciplinary issues [refer - Discipline Policy], or
 - personal non-work related concerns or grievances.

This procedure applies to all staff of Roads and Maritime Services, skill hire personnel and professional service contractors.

Read this procedure in conjunction with the Workplace Professionalism and Conduct Policy.

Victimization is any unfavourable treatment of a person as a consequence of their having lodged a grievance, being the subject of a grievance or being otherwise involved in a grievance.

Staff who raise or are otherwise involved in a grievance, are not to be victimised in any way.

Disciplinary proceedings may be commenced against any staff member who victimises or retaliates against a person lodging or otherwise involved in a grievance.

5 Addressing a grievance

A grievance does not need to be submitted in writing in order for the grievance to be addressed.

Grievances may be referred to the Workplace Conduct and Investigations Unit at any time directly by the staff member, their manager, another senior manager or the General Manager, Human Resources.

5.1 Seeking advice

At any time, staff can seek guidance on policies and procedures by contacting HR Advisory or their union delegate.

Managers may access advice and support from the Workplace Conduct and Investigations Unit.

5.2 Local, informal resolution

Ideally, grievance matters are most effectively addressed informally at a local level between the parties directly involved.

If the person with the grievance feels able, they should discuss the matter with the person involved or with the manager as soon as possible. In many cases, issues are dealt with most effectively in this way and any misunderstandings can be quickly cleared up.

Where informal discussions are not possible or do not resolve the matter, either party can discuss the matter with their manager, a more senior manager, or the Workplace Conduct and Investigations Unit.

6 Grievance addressed by manager

Where the manager is addressing the grievance, in the first instance they can seek advice and guidance from the Workplace Conduct and Investigations Unit.

The manager must inform all participants that the matters under discussion are confidential and participants must not discuss or divulge any information related to the matter with any person not directly involved in the grievance resolution process.

The manager must also encourage all participants to access the Employee Assistance Program for any additional support they may need.

6.1 Manager's initial meeting with staff member with a grievance

The manager is to meet with the staff member who has a grievance (the grievant) within 24 hours of them raising the matter, or as soon as practical.

The purpose of the meeting is to clarify the grievant's concerns and desired outcomes.

At any time during this process and following consultation with the Workplace Conduct and Investigations Unit, the manager may determine:

- the matter should be dealt with under a separate process, eg where discipline or work health and safety issues are identified, or
- that the grievance is vexatious

and make the appropriate referrals.

Where the manager is of the view that the matter can be dealt with under the Grievance Resolution Procedure, they must inform the grievant that they will discuss the nature of the grievance and any relevant details with the staff member who is the subject of the grievance (the respondent) and, where necessary, any other relevant witnesses.

6.2 Meeting with respondent

The manager must then meet with the respondent as soon as practical to provide information on the details of the grievance, the issues involved and the name of the person who lodged the grievance, so the respondent can respond fully to the manager and provide any relevant information.

The manager must inform the respondent that the manager may discuss the nature of the grievance with relevant witnesses.

6.3 Meeting with any witnesses

The manager may determine that discussions with any witnesses may assist them in the grievance resolution process. The manager must meet with witnesses as soon as practical.

The manager must not provide witnesses with any more information than they need in order to respond to matters requiring confirmation or clarification.

6.4 Concluding the grievance

Once the manager has gathered sufficient information on the matter, they are to convene a meeting with the parties directly involved.

The manager needs to set aside a reasonable period of time for the meeting (2 - 3 hours) and ensure any necessary arrangements are put in place to enable dedicated commitment to the process by all parties.

Depending on the circumstances, joint or separate meetings may be held with the grievant and the respondent. It is preferable that a joint meeting is held as lasting solutions are generally those that are generated collaboratively by the parties involved.

Outcomes can include:

- the parties reach agreement
- there is an improvement in the immediate circumstances that gave rise to the grievance
- outstanding issues remain but the parties agree to disagree and continue to work in a professional manner, and/ or
- there is no possible action that can be taken to resolve the matter but the parties accept this and the matter will not be discussed again.

If the grievance is not successfully resolved, the manager can refer the matter to a more senior manager and/ or seek advice and support from the Workplace Conduct and Investigations Unit.

In all cases, the manager must complete a Manager/ Supervisor Grievance Report form [No. 731] and forward it by email to the Workplace Conduct and Investigations Unit at WorkplaceConduct@transport.nsw.gov.au.

7 Action by Workplace Conduct and Investigations Unit

Where a grievance matter has been raised directly with, or referred to, the Workplace Conduct and Investigations Unit (WCIU) are to contact the parties involved, discuss the matter with them and assess the most appropriate action to be taken.

Actions may include one or more of the following:

- a facilitated discussion (conducted by the WCIU or another nominated person)
- mediation
- development of a remedial action plan
- referring the matter to be dealt with under a separate process, eg where discipline or work health and safety issues are identified, and/ or formal investigation, or
- other appropriate action as determined by the WCIU.

8 Grievance appeals

The grievant or respondent may lodge an appeal where they believe that the whole or part of the grievance resolution process did not comply with the requirements of this procedure.

The appeal must be lodged in writing to the Chief Executive, no later than 21 calendar days after the parties have been advised of the outcome.

The Chief Executive is to review the relevant documentation, take any further action they deem necessary and provide formal notification to the parties involved of their decision.
