RMS - means the Secretary of the Department of Transport as head of the Transport Service.

(Note: This definition was varied following the commencement of the Government Sector Employment Act 2013 to reflect that the Roads and Maritime Division of the Government Service of New South Wales established under Chapter 1A of the Public Sector Employment and Management Act 2002 was abolished, staff moved to the Transport Service, and that Employer functions are now exercised by the Secretary of the Department of Transport as Head of the Transport Service. SCS - School Crossing Supervisor.

- 2.2 The Award applies to all SCSs employed as members of the Transport Service in the RMS Group.
- 2.3 This rescinds and replaces the Crown Employees (Roads and Maritime Services - School Crossing Supervisors) Award published 3 July 2015 () and all variations thereof.
- 2.4 This Award comes into effect on 1 July 2017 and will remain in force until 30 June 2019.

3. Parties to the Award

- 3.1 The parties to this Award are:
 - (a) the Secretary of the Department of Transport as head of the Transport Service;
 - (b) the Australian Worker's Union; and

- (c) the Public Service Association and Professional Officers' Association Amalgamated Union of New South Wales.

4. Duties

- 4.1 SCSs are responsible for the implementation of the School Crossing Supervisor Scheme at designated school crossing sites.
- 4.2 In order to achieve this, SCSs must:
 - (a) Place CHILDREN CROSSING flags at each end of the crossing at the commencement of duties and remove the flags at the completion of duties;
 - (b) Be at their designated crossing at the times specified by RMS;
 - (c) Comply with the Safe Work Method Statement (SWMS) for the site at which they are working;
 - (d) Perform their duties in accordance with training provided by RMS;
 - (e) Follow any lawful directions given by RMS;
 - (f) Use only the safety clothing and equipment provided by RMS.

5. Appointment and Probation

- 5.1 SCSs must serve a three-month probation period before their employment is confirmed.
- 5.2 SCSs cannot commence duty until they have successfully completed both on-site and off-site training and have met the criteria for the criminal record check as outlined in clause 16.
- 5.3 The probation period may be extended for a period up to six months in exceptional circumstances. SCSs must be informed of the extension at least one week prior to the date on which they will complete three months' service.

6. Hours of Duty

- 6.1 Other than for reasons outlined in subclause 6.5 below, permanent SCSs will be rostered to work during the 41-week NSW school year.
- 6.2 The contract hours for SCSs will not include four weeks of the school summer vacation period in December/January each year. Any training held in January will be notified and paid for as per clause 15, Training.
- 6.3 The contract hours of duty for permanent SCSs are determined according to the operating hours of the crossing at their designated site, including the setting up and storage of equipment. The specific hours will be notified to permanent SCSs in their letters of engagement.
- 6.4 Unless otherwise agreed by the SCS, the contract hours of duty for permanent SCSs may be varied on a permanent basis provided that three weeks' notice is given (i.e. 15 weekdays, including school and public holidays). This does not restrict RMS to direct SCSs to work different than their contract hours on a temporary basis, eg to cover short-term absences of other staff.
- 6.5 Subject to clause 15, Training, permanent SCSs may, by agreement, work in excess of their contract hours. The additional hours worked, up to 38 hours per week, will be paid at ordinary time plus a 1/12 loading in lieu of additional annual leave (see subclause 7.4 below).
- 6.6 Permanent or casual SCSs who are directed to work in excess of 8 hours per day or 38 hours per week will be paid for the time worked at overtime rates as time and a half for the first two hours and double time thereafter.

- 6.7 The hours of duty for casual SCSs will fluctuate between engagements. Generally, casual SCSs cannot be engaged for longer than the ordinary hours worked by permanent SCSs.
- 6.8 RMS may arrange training to be conducted during the school holidays. Refer to clause 15, Training.
- 6.9 RMS may require SCSs to work reasonable overtime at overtime rates. An SCS may refuse to work overtime in circumstances where the working of overtime would result in the SCS staff working hours which are unreasonable. For the purposes of this paragraph what is unreasonable or otherwise will be determined having regard to:
- (a) any risk to the SCSs health and safety;
 - (b) the SCSs personal circumstances including any family and carer responsibilities;
 - (c) the needs of the workplace or enterprise;
 - (d) the notice (if any) given by RMS regarding the working of overtime, and by the SCS of their intention to refuse the working of overtime; or
 - (e) any other relevant matter.

7. Payment of Wages

- 7.1 The hourly rate of pay for SCSs will be calculated with reference to a base hourly rate of $N per hour. The rates of pay are set out in the table in clause 26. Rates of Pay will be increased by 2.5% operative from the first full pay period on or after 1 July 2017 and 1 July 2018.
- 7.2 The rate paid to permanent SCSs will be averaged over a period of 48 weeks. The calculation takes into account the 41-week school year plus the entitlement to four weeks' annual leave as permanent Employees. Permanent SCSs will continue to be paid for their contract hours during school holidays that fall between the months of February and December. Permanent SCSs will not be paid for the four weeks of the school summer vacation period in December/January each year.
- 7.3 The hourly rate paid to permanent SCSs will be calculated on the following basis:

$$\frac{N}{48} \times 45 = $P$$

Where 'N' is the base rate per hour and 'P' is the actual hourly rate.

- 7.4 Additional hours worked by permanent SCSs will be calculated on the following basis:

$$N + (N \times 1/12) = $A$$

Where 'N' is the base rate per hour and 'A' is the actual hourly rate.

This rate will also apply to all time spent training by permanent SCSs outside their contract hours.

- 7.5 Casuals are paid for actual time worked and all training but are otherwise not paid during school holidays.
- 7.6 As casuals are entitled to a loading in lieu of all forms of paid leave except for extended leave, the hourly rate paid to casual SCSs will be calculated on the following basis:

$$N + (N \times 20\%) = $C$$

Where 'N' is the base rate per hour and 'C' is the actual hourly rate.

- 7.7 Wages will be paid on a fortnightly basis into an account nominated by each SCS.

8. Superannuation

- 8.1 RMS will contribute a proportion of each SCSs wage as determined by Commonwealth superannuation legislation into a superannuation fund nominated by each SCS. The current proportion is 9.50%, effective from 1 July 2014.

- 10.3 SCSs who have their employment converted from casual to permanent through the operation of clause 21, Secure Employment, may be assigned to a designated work school crossing site and/or may be required to undertake their contract hours at different locations. The different locations will be within a reasonable boundary and will be agreed at the time of conversion. Such SCSs will not be entitled to reimbursement for additional fares or time spent travelling to these locations as per subclauses 12.1 and 12.2.
- 10.4 SCSs who elect to convert to permanent status by way of subclause 10.3 will be offered the choice to transfer to permanent status as outlined at subclause 10.1, upon a SCSs position falling vacant.

11. Leave

- 11.1 Calculation of leave
- (a) Unless otherwise specified, permanent SCSs will be entitled to leave on a pro-rata basis, calculated on their weekly contract hours.
 - (b) For the purpose of taking leave, 'day' means the normal/contract hours of duty that SCSs would have worked on that day. This does not include intermittent training carried out during the school term.
- 11.2 Casuals
- (a) Casuals receive a loading in lieu of all forms of paid leave except long service leave.
 - (b) With the exception of long service leave, casuals are not entitled to take paid leave.
- 11.3 Recreation Leave

- (d) SCSs re-employed in the same year are entitled to the lesser of:
 - (i) a maximum of 12 days sick leave, or

- (k) As a general practice backdated medical certificates will not be accepted. However, if the SCS concerned provides evidence of illness that only covers the latter part of the absence, RMS may allow the granting of sick leave for the whole period if satisfied that the reason for the absence was genuine.
- (l) If the RMS is concerned about the diagnosis described in the evidence of illness produced, the RMS may, after discussion with the SCS refer the evidence provided and the application for leave to an independent medical practitioner for advice.
 - (i) The type of leave granted to the SCS will be determined by RMS based on the medical advice received.

 - (i) for absences up to and including 5 working days evidence may be provided by a registered doctor, dentist, optometrist, chiropractor, osteopath, physiotherapist, oral and maxillo facial surgeon or, at RMS's discretion, other forms of evidence that satisfy that the SCS had a genuine illness including from another registered health services provider,

This includes discrimination on the grounds of race, sex, marital status, disability, homosexuality, transgender identity, age and responsibilities as a carer.
- 18.2 It follows that in fulfilling their obligations under the dispute resolution procedure prescribed by this Award the parties have obligations to take all reasonable steps to ensure that the operation of the provisions of this Award are not directly or indirectly discriminatory in their effects. It will be consistent with the fulfilment of these obligations for the parties to make application to vary any provision of the Award which, by its terms or operation, has a direct or indirect discriminatory effect.

19. Grievance Resolution and Dispute Settlement

19.1 Dispute Settlement Procedure

- (a) A dispute is a complaint or difficulty which affects one or more Employee(s). It may include a change in working conditions that is perceived to have a negative implication on Employees.
- (b) It is essential that management and the Unions consult on all issues of mutual interest and concern, not just issues considered likely to result in a dispute.
- (c) Failure to consult on all issues of mutual interest and concern to management and the Unions is contrary to the intention of the following process.
- (d) This disputes procedure outlined at subclause 19.2 below shall apply to any dispute that arises with respect to the following:
- (i) matters pertaining to the relationship between the Employer and Employees;
 - (ii) matters pertaining to the relationship between the Employer and the Union parties to this Award which pertain to the Award; and/or
 - (iii) the operation and application of this Award.

19.2 Dispute Settlement Process

Step One

In the first instance, any dispute which is local in nature, and which will not impact on other locations, will be dealt with at the local level by the Employee(s) and/or their Union representative raising the matter with the Employee's immediate supervisor. The parties shall make a genuine attempt to resolve the dispute within a reasonable timeframe.

Step Two

If the dispute remains unresolved following Step 1, the Employee(s) and/or their Union representative shall refer the matter to the Manager of the work area to which the dispute relates. The parties shall make a genuine attempt to resolve the dispute within a reasonable timeframe.

Step Three

If the Dispute cannot be resolved through the procedure outlined in Steps 1-2, or if the Dispute involves matters other than local issues or matters involving the application/ interpretation of this Award, the Employee or their representative may refer the dispute to the Principal Manager, Human Resources and Industrial Relations (or their representative) to attempt to achieve a resolution between the parties.

Step Four

If following Steps 1-3 the dispute remains unresolved, any relevant party may refer the matter to the NSW Industrial Relations Commission (IRC) for conciliation in the first instance, and if conciliation does not resolve the Dispute, the matter shall be arbitrated by IRC.

- 19.3 Nothing in this clause prevents the making of an agreement to refer a Dispute to a step other than the next in sequence to accelerate resolution or for some other reason(s), or to agree to refer the dispute to the IRC for urgent resolution.
- 19.4 Whilst this procedure is continuing, no work stoppage or any other form of work limitation shall occur.
- 19.5 The parties acknowledge that where a Dispute involves a matter where genuine, serious and immediate risk is posed to the health and safety of any person, it may not be practical to follow the procedure in this clause in attempting to resolve the dispute; and that an urgent reference to the IRC may be required.
- 19.6 Grievance Procedure
- (a) A grievance is a personal concern about work or the work environment for which Employees seek hearing or resolution.
 - (b) A grievance may, for example, relate to:
 - (i) allocation of work or development opportunities,

 - (iii) suspected discrimination or harassment.
 - (c) RMS' grievance resolution policy and guidelines, as amended by RMS from time to time, are to be followed when a grievance arises.

- 19.7 Dispute relating to WHS issues
- (a) The RMS and SCSs are committed to the Work Health and Safety Act 2011 and any other statutory requirements, at all times.
 - (b) When a WHS risk is identified or a genuine safety factor is the source of a dispute:
 - (i) SCSs have a duty to notify the RMS of the risk to the SCS Work Health and Safety Committee, and;
 - (ii) allow the RMS a reasonable amount of time to respond.
 - (iii) the RMS has a duty to address the issue identified; and
 - (iv) report on the issue within a reasonable timeframe.
 - (c) If a SCS notifies WorkCover without allowing the RMS a reasonable amount of time to respond to the issue, it is a breach of the legislative provisions.
 - (d) The RMS respects the rights of all SCSs to refuse to continue working due to a genuine safety issue.
 - (e) The Unions and SCSs acknowledge that the creation of an industrial dispute over a WHS matter that is not legitimate is a breach of the legislative provisions under section 268 of the Work Health and Safety Act 2011.

20. Union Contributions

- 20.1 Where SCSs authorise RMS in writing to deduct Union fees from their wage, RMS will where practical, make the deduction and forward it to the Unions.
- 20.2 SCSs elected as job representatives, who have notified and have been accepted by RMS as accredited representatives of the Union(s) shall be allowed sufficient time during working hours to interview the supervisor, manager and/or the staff members who they represent on matters affecting staff.

21. Secure Employment

21.1 Objective of this Clause

The objective of this clause is for the Employer to take all reasonable steps to provide its Employees with secure employment by maximising the number of permanent positions in the Employer's workforce, in particular by ensuring that casual Employees have an opportunity to elect to become full-time or part-time Employees.

21.2 Casual Conversion

- (a) A casual Employee engaged by a particular Employer on a regular and systematic basis for a sequence of periods of employment under this Award during a calendar period of six months shall thereafter have the right to elect to have his or her ongoing contract of employment converted to permanent full-time employment or part-time employment if the employment is to continue beyond the conversion process prescribed by this subclause.
- (b) Every Employer of such a casual Employee shall give the Employee notice in writing of the provisions of this sub-clause within four weeks of the Employee having attained such period of six months. However, the Employee retains his or her right of election under this subclause if the Employer fails to comply with this notice requirement.
- (c) Any casual Employee who has a right to elect under subclause 21.2(a), upon receiving notice under subclause 21.2(b) or after the expiry of the time for giving such notice, may give four weeks' notice in writing to the Employer that he or she seeks to elect to convert his or her ongoing contract of employment to full-time or part-time employment, and within four weeks of receiving such notice from the Employee, the Employer shall consent to or refuse the election, but shall not unreasonably so refuse. Where an Employer refuses an election to convert, the reasons for doing so shall be fully stated and discussed with the Employee concerned, and a genuine attempt shall be made to reach agreement. Any dispute about a refusal of an election to convert an ongoing contract of employment shall be dealt with as far as practicable and with expedition through the disputes settlement procedure.
- (d) Any casual Employee who does not, within four weeks of receiving written notice from the Employer, elect to convert his or her ongoing contract of employment to full-time employment or part-time employment will be deemed to have elected against any such conversion.
- (e) Once a casual Employee has elected to become and been converted to a full-time Employee or a part-time Employee, the Employee may only revert to casual employment by written agreement with the Employer.
- (f) If a casual Employee has elected to have his or her contract of employment converted to full-time or part-time employment in accordance with subclause 21.2(c), the Employer and Employee shall, in accordance with this paragraph, and subject to subclause 21.2(c), discuss and agree upon:
- (i) whether the Employee will convert to full-time or part-time employment; and
 - (ii) if it is agreed that the Employee will become a part-time Employee, the number of hours and the pattern of hours that will be worked either consistent with any other part-time employment provisions of this Award pursuant to a part time work agreement made under Chapter 2, Part 5 of the Industrial Relations Act 1996 (NSW);

Provided that an Employee who has worked on a full-time basis throughout the period of casual employment has the right to elect to convert his or her contract of employment to full-time employment and an Employee who has worked on a part-time basis during the period of casual employment has the right to elect to convert his or her contract of employment to part-time employment, on the basis of the same number of hours and times of work as previously worked, unless other arrangements are agreed between the Employer and the Employee.

- (g) Following an agreement being reached pursuant to paragraph (f), the Employee shall convert to full-time or part-time employment. If there is any dispute about the arrangements to apply to an Employee converting from casual employment to full-time or part-time employment, it shall be dealt with as far as practicable and with expedition through the disputes settlement procedure.
- (h) An Employee must not be engaged and re-engaged, dismissed or replaced in order to avoid any obligation under this subclause.
