Bulk Bookings

The following information is required to make Bulk Bookings.

Transport for NSW defines a 'bulk booking' as a recurring booking that occurs at the same time on the same day of the week for the same vessel for a continuous period of six months within a bulk booking period.

Applications must be received as per the following:

- 1 October for the following April - September
- 1 April for the following October - March
- Approved Whale Watching* - 1 October for the following 31 May - 30 November

*Approved Whale Watching Operators will provide advertised bona fide tours specifically for watching whales throughout the whale watching season.

Nominations received after the due date may be given lower priority. Bookings will only be confirmed once Transport for NSW has received all nominations.

For more information regarding Bulk Bookings, refer to the Transport for NSW website and the Charter Wharf Booking System Terms and Conditions or contact Maritime Product Services on 13 12 36 (option 2).
