- NSW number plates always remain the property of Roads and Maritime Services (Roads and Maritime).
- Roads and Maritime does not replace lost, stolen or destroyed plates with the same content except in limited circumstances
- If you are not already recorded on the computer system of Roads and Maritime, you must attend a registry or service centre in person and provide proof of identity.
- If you are sending a representative to a registry or service centre to conduct business on your behalf, sign the declaration and fill in the Representative Authority section of this form (see section 8-10).
- Use Trader's Plate Application form 1100 to order or replace trader's plates.
- If your vehicle has Liquefied Petroleum Gas (LPG) or Compressed Natural Gas (CNG) installed, it is a legal requirement that the number plates on the vehicle must display an appropriate LPG or CNG Label. The LPG or CNG label must be attached without obscuring any information on the number plates. Heavy fines may apply if your vehicle does not have the appropriate label attached to the vehicle number plate.
- If you are issued a new registration label you must attach this to your vehicle. Note: From 1 Jan 2013 light vehicles (including motorcycles and trailers) up to 4.5 tonnes Gross Vehicle Mass no longer need to display a registration label.
- Direct Delivery terms and conditions are available online at myplates.com.au.
- For number plate sales and enquiries contact MyPlates on 13 17 58 or go to myplates.com.au.

8 Privacy Statement

Roads and Maritime is collecting your personal information in connection either with your vehicle registration and/or in connection with your application for Special Number Plates and we may retain and use it:

- To process your application for Special Number Plates in accordance with the NSW road transport legislation and the Motor Accidents Compensation Act 1999 (and all subordinate, amending, consolidating or replacing legislation)
- For driver licensing, motor vehicle, road transport or road safety purposes
- To facilitate the administration of Special Number Plates and for use in the operation of our Special Number Plate business.

You are required to provide this information under road transport legislation and we may refuse your application if you do not provide it

We may disclose your personal information to other driver licensing and vehicle registration agencies, to assess your application or verify the information you provide, and for inquiries about motor accidents. We may also disclose it to confirm compulsory insurance is current, to anyone proposing to acquire an interest in your vehicle, in respect of inquiries relating to stolen or abandoned vehicles, or to any joint Registered Operator of your vehicle.

We may disclose your personal information to any Concessionaire appointed to manage our Special Number Plate business, which as at the date of these Terms and Conditions is Plate Marketing Pty Ltd, to allow the Concessionaire to manage the Special Number Plate business.

If you are an Annual Fee Paying Customer, we or our Concessionaire may communicate special number plate marketing and customer service information unless you elect to opt-out by going to myplates.com.au/update where you can enter the plate number and your surname/business name. Otherwise, we will not disclose your personal information without your consent unless authorised by law.

Your personal information will be held by us at 20-44 Ennis Road Milsons Point, NSW 2061 and generally you can contact us or visit service.nsw.gov.au/online_services to access or correct it.

9 Declaration

Please read carefully before you sign.
If you do not tell the truth you can be prosecuted.

I declare that:

- I understand that Roads and Maritime may refuse an application for number plates or recall the plates after they are issued, if they are considered to be offensive or unsuitable.
- If ordering Special Number Plates, I have read and I accept the Terms and Conditions for issue of Special Number Plates available on the myPlates website myplates.com.au.
- If you are applying for Special Number Plates for someone else (the recipient), you also warrant that the recipient has authorised Roads and Maritime's collection of the recipient's personal information from you, or you have no reason to believe the individual would object to their information being supplied and that the information about the recipient is accurate, up-to-date and complete.

All the information I have provided in this form is correct.
