ACCESS IMPROVEMENTS AT JIGAMY FARM

Member for Bega Andrew Constance today announced that Roads and Maritime Services (RMS) is seeking community feedback on planned upgrades on the Princes Highway at Jigamy Farm near Eden.

“The NSW Government has committed funding to improve access to Jigamy Farm on the Princes Highway, 10 kilometres north of Eden,” Mr Constance said.

“The improvements are being made to improve access in and out of Jigamy Farm.”

“RMS is looking to residents and businesses to provide feedback on local road safety and traffic knowledge, including incidents near or at the access to Jigamy Farm and how this access could be improved.”

Feedback can be provided until Friday 28 September and should be addressed to:
